Reasons for Allowance

Affidavit or Declaration Under 37 CFR 1.131

1. The declaration filed 9/17/2010 under 37 CFR 1.131 has been considered and is persuasive to overcome the Sie reference. The effective filing date of the instant application is given the date of 10/12/99.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is an examiner's reasons for allowance:

Prior art of record fails to teach or reasonably suggest receiving a plurality of time segments of the selected video program in parallel, wherein each of the time segments is received on a different one of the channels when taking the claim as a whole.

Although Ebisawa teaches of pre-storing the first n minutes of a media program and transmitting the remainder of the same program on a different channel to permit near video on demand and Artigalas teaches of transmitting different programs on different channels and storing them simultaneously, the combination of Ebisawa and Artigalas does not reasonably suggest the transmission and storage of the same video program on different channels at the same time when taking the claim as a whole as Ebisawa and Artigalas provide a different solution to the same problem. Ebisawa teaches that immediate access to a media program be provided by pre-storing the initial portion of the media program, then downloading the remainder while the initial portion is being played back. In, this way transmission and storage requirements are reduced. Artigalas teaches that a plurality of media programs, in their entirety, be transmitted on different channels and downloaded in advance. Artigas requires no more transmission bandwidth and requires substantial storage capability. Ebisawa require a substantial amount of transmission bandwidth, but less storage. Accordingly, Artigas and Ebisawa offer different solutions to the same problem, and does not reasonably suggest receiving a plurality of time segments of the selected video program in parallel, wherein each of the time segments is received on a different one of the channels when taking the claim as a whole.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
